

Invocation to Lucifer by Keres Asterion

Hail to thee, Lucifer

Lightbearer and keeper of the Black Flame

I call upon you to appear before me, that I may perceive your glory and be filled with your spirit.

Ignite the black flame of enlightenment within me. May I no longer be blinded by the light of creation, that I may seek the truth within the dark.

First to fall, and lord of darkness, bless me with your presence, that I be granted the eyes to see and the mind to understand the path laid before me.

May my spirit be entwined with yours, O Lucifer! That you may me guide me through this path of thorns!

Hail the Black Flame! Hail Lucifer!
